Experiences in adapting toys in youtube Ceapat channel

Type of Project

Ongoing research project

Summary

One of the services provided by Ceapat (Spanish Reference Centre of Personal Autonomy and Assistive Products) is adapting toys for children with disabilities. Families, schools and different Kind of entities use this service in order to adapt toys and leisure electronic devices. Ceapat team has made different videos showing how to make adaptations. These videos can be seen in youtube Ceapat channel. By means of verbal and visual instructions they can help people make their own adaptations very easily.
